Guest family of New York including the dynastic Murat-Bonaparte matrilineal

A1. This branch hereafter referred to as the Guest of New York is a close branch of the Guest of Wimborne, England. The present representatives and present family branch members of these two extant branches, one in the USA and the other in England are directly descended relatively recently from shared lineal ancestors Ivor Bertie Guest 1835-1914 and Cornelia-Spencer Churchill, also known by her peerage name, Cornelia [Henrietta Maria] Wimborne 1847-1927.

A2. Ivor Bertie Guest 1835-1914 is the son of Sir John "Josiah" Guest 1785-1852 celebrated British industrialist (refer history of GKN Automotive and Aerospace roots to Dowlais), and his wife Cornelia is the brother of Sir Winston Churchill. Cornelia is the daughter of John Spencer-Churchill, 7th Duke of Marlborough, thus making Guest an uncle-by-marriage of Winston Churchill, later the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom (G.E. Cokayne; with Vicary Gibbs, H.A. Doubleday, Geoffrey H. White, Duncan Warrand and Lord Howard de Walden, editors, The Complete Peerage of England, Scotland, Ireland, Great Britain and the United Kingdom, Extant, Extinct or Dormant, new ed., 13 volumes in 14 (1910-1959; reprint in 6 volumes, Gloucester, U.K.: Alan Sutton Publishing, 2000), volume XII/2, page 744; Mosley, Charles, editor, 1999, p 1869, Burke's Peerage and Baronetage, 106th edition, 2 volumes. Crans, Switzerland: Burke's Peerage).

A3. When Ivor Bertie Guest 1st Baron Wimborne was born on 29 August 1835, in Dowlais, Glamorgan, Wales, United Kingdom, his father, Josiah John Guest 1st Baronet of Dowlais, was 50 and his mother, Lady Charlotte Elizabeth Bertie, was 23. He married Cornelia Henrietta Maria Spencer-Churchill on 25 May 1868, in Westminster St James, Middlesex, England, United Kingdom. They were the parents of at least 5 sons and 4 daughters. He lived in Oxfordshire, England, United Kingdom in 1871. Below is a portrait of Ivor and also a photograph of his final resting place. He died on 22 February 1914, in Canford Magna, Dorset, England, United Kingdom, at the age of 78, and was buried in Canford Magna, Dorset, England, United Kingdom:

A4. The Guest of New York branch sprang from the main stem the Guest of Wimborne England when Ivor and Cornelia's second born son, Frederick Edward Guest 1875-1937 and his wife Anne Phipps 1872-1959 had issue and called New York USA home.

A5. Frederick Edward Guest 1875-1937 elder brother and heir, Ivor Churchill Guest 1873-1839 continued the Guest patronymic main stem known as the Guest of Wimborne to whom present representative Ivor Mervyn Vigors Guest 1`968-, is the great grandson of Ivor Churchill Guest 1873-1839. Ivor the present, has issue a son and a daughter and his patronymic heir is Ivor Guest born 2016.

A6. Soon to follow is an A4 Guest family sheet depicting the branch relationship and shared ancestry beyond Ivor and Cornelia the Guest of New York and Guest of Wimborne enjoy. The chart also introduces the most interesting contemporary dynastic matrilineal bloodline flowing into the Guest main stem which is traced back to the early apex Guest of Handsworth branch of late medieval mid-west England by the Crown's peerage authorities, which is the Guest-Murat-Bonaparte dynastic bloodline. Below is the A$ Guest family sheet and an enlargement may be referred which is Sheet 16 of the Guest patrilineal family sheets booklet:

Thomas Gest c1494-

Of Worcester, England

Youngest of three sons born to John Gest c1460– and Margaret Hawkes .Mistaken identity given to him being the father of Bishop Edmund Gest 1514-1577 by Sir William Dugdale's 1664/5 Visitation of County Worcester. The 1569 Visitation of Worcester, p48, Gest pedigree made Thomas Gest c1465- of County Worcester, Bishop Edmund Gest's grandfather. This is congruent with Edmund's father being Thomas Gest of Tewkesbury, Worcester, the nephew of John Gest of Handsworth and 1st cousin of his sons, Richard, Lawrence and Thomas. The latter Thomas probably dying before adulthood and without issue contributing to previous mistaken identity.

Ivor Bertie Guest 1835-1914 =
Cornelia Henrietta Maria Spencer-Churchill 1847–1927

Cornelia is the brother of Sir Winston Spencer-Churchill, Former British Prime Minister and WWII Leader.
Ivor and Cornelia had nine children (Mosely, C 1999, p.186). Burke's Peerage, Vol II).
They are the parents of Frances Guest (1869–1957), latter known as Lady Chelmsford, who married Frederic Thesiger, 1st Viscount Chelmsford, who served as Viceroy of India; 2nd born and eldest son, Ivor Churchill Guest 1873-1939, 1st Viscount of Wimborne; 2nd born son Christian Henry Charles Guest (1874–1957), who married the Hon. Frances Lyttelton (1885–1918) (had issue a son John Guest 1913, presumed infant death). 3rd born son Fredrick "Freddie" Edward Guest, CBE, DSO (1875- 1937). Freddie married Annot Phipps (the daughter of Henry Phipps, Jr. and Anne Childs Shaffer and they had three issue: 1) Winston Frederick Churchill Guest (1906-1982); 2) Raymond Richard Guest I (1907-1991); and 3) Diana Guest. All three issue because US citizens and provided Freddie and Annelies with grand children (Mosely, C, 2003, Burke's Peerage, Vol II, p4211) . The Guest patronymic along this line that springs from Freddie and Annie is extant. After the birth of Freddie followed 4th born son, Lionel George William Guest (1880–1935), who married Flora Bigelow (former wife of Charles S. Dodge), daughter of U.S. Ambassador John Bigelow (nil issue). Youngest issue was Oscar Montague Guest (1888–1958), who married Kathleen Peterson (b. 1903). According to Burkes Peerage (Mosely 2003, Vol 1, p1093), they had four children: Bertie Warner Guest (1925-); Patrick Henry Guest (1927-2016); Cornelia Rowena Guest (1928-) and Revel Sarah Guest (1931-). Burke's peerage 2003, Vol III, p4211, further records Bertie having four children: Jonathon Bertie Guest (1952-); Veronica Susan Guest (1953-); Harriet Clare Guest (1955-) and Diana Charlotte Guest (1959-). Jonathon has three children and a granddaughter: 1) Oliver Charles Bertie Guest (b. 1984) who married Lisa Ann Vinunuci and had issue, daughter Ivy Willa Charlotte Guest (b. 2019), 2) Hector Jonathan Guest (b. 1988) (no record of having issue) and Rose Marie Guest (b. 1990) (no record of having issue). Patrick Henry Guest (1927-2016) who married Juliet Marian James left three sons: eldest Peter Hugh Guest (b. 1952). However there is no record of Peter being married or having issue, nor for brother Matthew James Guest (b. 1954). Youngest of Bertie's grandsons, David Christian Guest (b. 1960) is recorded by Burkes peerage 2003 Vol III, p4221) marrying Henrietta Mary Coode-Adams, the daughter of John Giles Selby Coode-Adams and Sonia Elizabeth York, on 26 July 1986. David and Henrietta lived in 2003 at Lower Battreys Farm, Whitney-on-Wye, Herefordshire, England and they have three daughters: 1) Imogen Victoria Guest (1993-); Jemima Charlotte Guest (1995-) and Genevieve Isla Guest (1997-). It is presumed the guest patronymic along these lines are extinct but the present patronymic representatives who are the direct descendants of Ivor Churchill Guest 1873-1939, 1st Viscount of Wimborne and his younger brother, Fredrick "Freddie" Edward Guest, CBE, DSO (1875- 1937), father of Winston Churchill Guest: Raymond Richard Guest I and Diana Guest of the Guest of New York USA branch.

Guest –Murat-Bonaparte Branch

Guest of New York, USA Senior Branch and Cadet Lines x 2

Current based on available evidence, 10th April, 2022. Research conducted by John L.R. Guest, M.Bus, Grad Dip IR/HRM, B.Ed. B.A..

Frederick Edward Guest 1875-1937, late of New York USA's genealogical legacy

A7. The family history of the Guest of New York begins Frederick "Freddie" Edward Guest (1875–1937), married Anne Phipps (1873–1959), daughter of American industrialist Henry Phipps; and called New York USA home. Below is a photograph taken of Freddie and also a photograph of Amy Guest (nee Phipps):

A8. The evidence-based trace of this branch of the Guest family subsequently takes the reader to the flow of dynastic blood from the House of Murat and Bonaparte which joined the Guest family from 1961 when Freddie and Anne's 2nd born son, Raymond Richard Guest (1907-1991). Raymond Richard GUEST, (1907-1991) was born 25 November 1907 at Manhattan, New-York (New-York, USA). He died on the 31 December 1991 at Fredericksburg (Virginie, USA) at Mary Washington Hospital aged 84 years old,

A9. Raymond was a USA Ambassador to Ireland, and awarded by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, the OBE honour. Raymond married in married on the 24 June 1960, at Bowling Green (Virginie, USA), his 3rd wife Caroline Guest (1923-2012), also known as Princess Caroline Cecile Alexandrine Murat. Below is a photograph of Raymond:

Photographic Print of Lester Piggott on Sir Ivor after winning the Derby led by Princess Caroline Cecile

Lester Piggott on Sir Ivor after winning the Derby led by Princess Caroline Cecile Alexandrine Jeanne Murat, wife of owner Raymond R. Guest, businessman and United States Ambassador to Ireland,
Epsom, Wednesday 29th May 1968.

A10. Raymond and Caroline had two children Achille Murat Guest (1961-) and Laetitia Amelia Guest, m*arried to* Laurie Oppenheim.

A11. Son, Achille Murat Guest was born on 23rd March 1961 and is fairly presumed to be the present branch representative of the Guest of New York, USA (The King George Journal staff, June 20, 2012, "Caroline Murat". The King George Journal, retrieved 5 August 2016).

A12. Archil is the apex foundation elder of the 1st generation of the united Guest-Murat-Bonaparte family a dynastic line of the Guest family.

A11. Hence, it is this branch extensions formed about the same time as its distant branch Guest-Wessex formed in 1960 to who the researcher is the apex foundation elder of the 1st generation of the united Guest-Wessex et al, dynastic family, which makes for two Guest dynastic families founded in 1960 and then in 1961. Both of these branches, distantly related are attributed by the genealogical continuity evidence to sit within firstly, and in respect to the recently formed united Guest-Wessex family from 1960 bearing the patronymic Guest, of Tewkesbury Guest patrilineal stem, and the united Guest-Murat-Bonaparte formed from 1961 of New York also bearing the Guest patronymic, sitting within the Guest of Handsworth stem.

A12. These two primary Guest patrilineal stem of later medieval mid-west England is united in infinitum, beyond close blood relatives, Gyles Guest (c1495-1557) of Tewkesbury/Kings Norton Worcester and fairly assumed to be his uncle, John Guest of Handsworth/Kings Norton, Worcester (c1468-aft 1500).

A13. Regardless of the degree of their certain close blood relationship, they and their direct descendants bearing the Guest partonomic all inherited the same original Guest Arms grant.

A14. Whereby Giles Guest (c1495-1557) was granted by the College of Arms in 1543 the legal right to bear the ancient Guest Arms first displayed in the tradition way by his lineal ancestor Lord Saeric Gest (c1044-aft 1086) of Wiltshire and born Caen Normandy France.

A14. Whereas, in 1634, posthumously, the same grant was given to the direct descendants of the three sons of John Guest of Handsworth and Kings Norton Worcester, where the researcher is able to trace Gyles to his two brothers, his nephew Bishop Edmund Guest (1514-1577) and father, Thomas Guest (c1468-), certain grandfather of Edmund (1563 Visitation of Worcester), to be from the same place as John Guest (c1468-), also of Kings Norton, County Worcester (Sir William Dugdale, 1634; 1663/4 Visitation of County Worcester).

A15. In lieu of any disconfirming information or an alternative Guest family immediate of the same time and place, and with a nil return for any other Guest family with all of its spelling variation to also be granted the same original Guest Arms, it is certain Gyles father, Thomas Guest (c1468-) is the brother of John Guest (c 1468-aft 1500), or no o further distantly related as 1st patrilineal cousins.

A15. Without a definitive record for making Thomas and John brothers, it is irrefutable they share with a generation or so, lineally ascending the same bloodline made by various complementary records well settled in English history by the College of Arms awarding Guest males in al branches springing from the two apex elder Guest stems, Tewkesbury and Handsworth forever, the right to bear the same Guest arms once displayed by the earliest known English Guest patrilineal ancestor, known to authentic records of England, long relied upon by the Crown to provide bloodline.

A16. Easily verifiable archival evidence with artifacts submitted throughout Volume I confirms the Guests roots are traced to the conquest in Shropshire and Wiltshire and pre-conquest to Caen, Normandy, France, with the apex elder progenitors of the two Guest patrilineal main stems, Tewkesbury and Handsworth, and all present Guest branches chartered throughout Volume I, its various Attachments and Supplements I, II and III, such as this supplement, makes the single earliest known patrilineal source of our Guest bloodline inherited from Lord Saeric Gest (abt 1034-aft 1086) who is known to King (1874, p272; Professor Palmer (1990, University of Hull); Draper (1890, p48) and Doomsday Book (1086).

A17. Lord Saeric Gest (c1044-aft 1086) genealogical legacy is therefore well preserved across no fewer than 16 patrilineal branches found across many countries and all originating as one single Guest patrilineal family around 1420-1448 from Kings Norton, Worcester, England.

A18. It is the two branches forementioned above, namely the Guest-Wessex extension of Melbourne formed 1960 and the Guest-Murat-Bonaparte extension formed a year later in 1961 which uniquely for the first time present for the greater Guest family with all of its known 16 branches two dynastic bloodlines in which rising generation carry forward inheritance of blood which is distinctively dynastic and the patrilineal genealogical legacy of Lord Saeric Gest (c1044-aft 1086 (refer Volumes I, II & III for the complete Guest-Wessex family history and records).

A19. Suffice to say, it is the Guest-Murat-Bonaparte dynastic family which is the focus here and whilst the researcher submits, he has previously made the evidence-based case the Guest of Melbourne, 2nd and 3rd senior branches are dynastic, i.e. Guest-Wessex et al, the evidence-based case is made by stepping out the genealogical facts below Archil's direct descendants bear the same united Guest patrilineal and dynastic honour albeit inheriting royal blood and illustrious houses different from his distant cousin, present researcher and zero participants for this study, John Lindsey Robert Guest (1960-) of Melbourne (Apex elder, 1st generation Guest-Wessex family).

Guest family of New York dynastic bloodline matrilineal ascending beyond Achilles Murat Guest (1961-)

A20. Achille Murat Guest (1961-), is made for the remainder of this trace and history of the Guest family of New York dynastic matrilineal branch the zero participants to make all remaining lineal and collateral calculations.

Mother _ Princess Caroline Celia Murat Guest (1923-2012)

A21. As previously submitted Achille's mother is Princess Caroline Celia Guest (1923-2012), nee Murat. Caroline "Caro" died Princess Caroline Cecile Murat Guest (Refer: Powhatan Plantation Cemetery King George, King George County, Virginia, USA, whereby her burial records state: BIRTH 10 Dec 1923, Paris, City of Paris, Île-de-France, France; DEATH: 25 May 2012 (aged 88) at Neuilly-sur-Seine, Departement des Hauts-de-Seine, Île-de-France, France; BURIAL: Powhatan Plantation Cemetery, King George, King George County, Virginia, USA).

Grandfather - Prince Alexandre Murat (1889–1926)

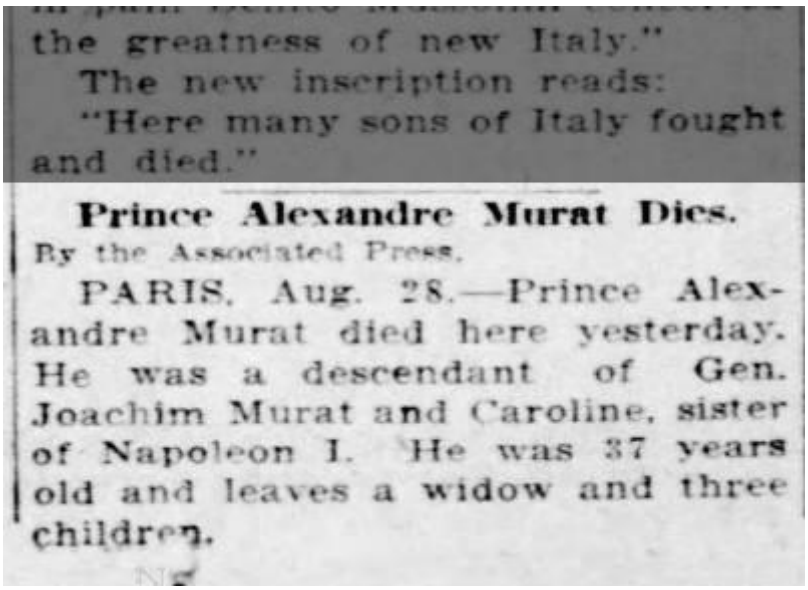
A22. Alexandre Michel Eugène Joachim Napoléon Murat 1889-1926 was born on the 20 December 1894 in Fontainebleau, 77300, Seine-et-Marne, Île-de-France, France. He married Caroline's mother Yvonne Gillois, born 20 December 1894 also in Fontainebleau, 77300, Seine-et-Marne, Île-de-France, France, on 4 September 1920, Paris, 75000, Île-de-France, France.

A23. Caroline was one of three children born to the marriage:

1. Laetitia Marie Cécile Marcelle Murat.
2. Caroline Cécile Alexandrine Jeanne Murat.
3. Napoléon Joachim Louis Maurice Murat.

A24. Below is a public notice given to Alexandre upon his death making very clear of his lineage and his ancestral great grandmother's sibling relationship to Napoleon I of France.

A23. It is Napoleon who made his sister's husband, Alexandre's ancestral great grandfather King of Naples and the evidence stepped out further r will subsequently show:



the greatness of new Italy."
The new inscription reads:
"Here many sons of Italy fought and died."

Prince Alexandre Murat Dies.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—Prince Alexandre Murat died here yesterday. He was a descendant of Gen. Joachim Murat and Caroline, sister of Napoleon I. He was 37 years old and leaves a widow and three children.

Great Grandfather - Joachim Napoléon Murat, 5th Prince Murat (28 February 1856 – 2 November 1932) and Marie Cécile Ney d'Elchingen

A25. Alexandre's parents, Joachim Napoléon Murat, 5th Prince Murat (1856-1932) and Marie Cécile Ney d'Elchingen, were married on the 10th May 1884.

A26. Marie is the daughter of the prince de la Moskowa and a great-granddaughter of Marshal Michel Ney (Prince Murat, Head of his House is Dead, Great-Grandson of a Marshal of France and Napoleon's Sister, Caroline. Noted as a sportsman. His Home in Paris Used by President Wilson--Kin Was Husband of Washington's Niece". The New York Times. 3 November 1932, retrieved 20 March 2020.

A27. Achille Murat Guest's (1961-) grandfather, Prince Alexandre was one of 8 children born to the marriage of his parents, Joachim and Marie Murat:

- Joachim, 6th Prince Murat (1885–1938), who married Louise Amélie Plantié. Their son, Joachim, 7th Prince Murat was shot in 1944 while fighting for the French Resistance.
- Princess Marguerite Murat (1886–1956), who married Baron Edgar Lejeune
- Prince Pierre Murat (1887–1888), who died in infancy.
- Prince Alexandre Murat (1889–1926) who married Yvonne Gillois (Scarisbrick, Diana. "The Murat Tiara," Sotheby's)..
- Prince Charles Michael Joachim Napoleon Murat (1892–1973), who married Margaret Stuyvesant Rutherfurd (1891–1976), the step-daughter of William Kissam Vanderbilt[4] and the granddaughter of Lewis Morris Rutherfurd (1816–1892)[5] and Oliver Harriman (1829–1904), in 1929.[6] She was previously married to U.S. Representative Ogden Livingston Mills (1884–1937) and Sir Paul Henry Dukes (1889–1967).
- Prince Paul Murat (1893–1964), who married Solange de La Rochefoucald
- Prince Louis Murat (1896–1916), who was killed in action during World War I.
- Prince Jérôme Murat (1898–1992).

Great Grandfather - Joachim Napoléon Murat, 5th Prince Murat (1856-1932) and Marie Cécile Michelle Ney d'Elchingen 1867-1960.

A28. Joachim Napoléon Murat (1856-11932) was a member of the Bonaparte-Murat family and born on 28 February 1856 at Boissy-Saint-Léger, Val-de-Marne, France. He is the son of Joachim Murat 1834-1901 and Malcy Berthier de Wagram 1832-1884.

A29. Below are portraits of Joachim and a portrait of wife Marie "Cecile" (Cécile Murat Ney d'Elchingen (1867-1960) painted by Giovanni Boldini, 1910):

Malcy Berthier de Wagram 1832-1884.

A30. His parents were Joachim Joseph Murat, 4th Prince Murat and of Malcy Louise Caroline Berthier de Wagram. His paternal grandparents were Prince Napoleon Lucien Charles Murat, 2nd Prince of Pontecorvo and 3rd Prince Murat, the second son of Joachim Murat, King of Naples, who married Napoleon's sister, Caroline Bonaparte, and Caroline Georgina Fraser (Charleston, South Carolina, 13 April 1810 – Paris, 10 February 1879), daughter of Thomas Fraser.

A31. His maternal grandparents were Napoléon-Alexandre Berthier, 2nd Prince of Wagram (1810–1887) and Zénaïde Françoise Clary (1812–1884), who was the niece of Désirée Clary and Julie Clary. His maternal great-grandfather was Louis-Alexandre Berthier (1753–1815), 1st prince de Wagram, 1st duc de Valangin, 1st sovereign Prince of Neuchâtel, who was a Marshal and Vice-Constable of France beginning in 1808, and Chief of Staff (Major général) under Napoleon.
